IL NAELA believes that a candidate does not need to meet every criterion; rather, these criteria offer a basic framework to be used when considering an individual's application for Emeritus membership.

An affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members of the Committee shall be required for recommendation as an Emeritus Member. A majority vote of the Board shall be required for the person to be elected as an Emeritus Member. Emeritus Members shall be voting members of the Academy, though because these individuals are retired from the practice of law they cannot serve on the NAELA Board of Directors. To whatever extent possible, Emeritus Members shall continue their service and support to the Academy.

Emeritus Members receive two primary benefits from the Academy:

- 1. Reduced annual dues.
- 2. The option of attending national conferences at a reduced fee designed to cover the expense of social functions.
